

Central Mass Safety Council presents:
Introduction to OSHA

If OSHA were at your door...would you know what to do?

What you'll learn in this interactive program:

- Why following just the spirit of the law can still result in fines
Specific steps to prepare for an OSHA Inspection
Detailed instructions on what to do and what not to do should you be inspected
Strategies and tactics to keep your organization on track

OSHA News Release

2004 - 02/23/2004 - OSHA Fines D... $72,500 for Forklift Safety Hazards

OSHA News Release - Table of Contents

OSHA Regional News Release

U.S. Department of Labor
Office of Public Affairs

Region 1

Region 1 USDL 04-154-BOS /BOS 2004-034
Monday, February 23, 2004
Contact: : John M. Chavez
Phone: (617) 565-2075

Per Person- Members: $112 each (includes materials) Nonmembers: $141 each (includes materials)

When: Tuesday, November 10, 2009; Tuesday, March 16, 2010; or call about scheduling for groups of 10 or more.

Where: Central Mass Safety Council, 186 W. Boylston St, West Boylston, MA 01583

Time: 8:30 AM - 12:00PM

Register by fax at: 508-835-2869. To register by phone or for more information call: 978-875-1942 or 508-835-2333 X 21

Name Organization

Street Address City

Phone Fax email

The amount of your investment is $

Method of Payment VISA Mastercard Card # Ex Date

Name on Card (Please Print) Signature

Company check (Must be received prior to the program) If mailed, send to the Safety Council at address above

Note: Payment made by the above two methods guarantees you receive your class certification by the end of the program, provided you submit a roster at least two business days prior to the program date.

Note: A 10% fee will be added for paying at the door. Cancellation Policy: 7 or more business days from class: 100% refund; 4-6 business days from class: 50% refund; Less than 3 business days from class: No refund.

Your Instructor: Rich Bianchi is president of Bianchi Consulting, an OSHA Authorized Instructor and consultant to national corporations such as Gillette, Pepsi, and Staples; as well many small to medium sized companies in the Northeast. He is also the survivor of an OSHA Inspection.